October - December 2004

Well it is finally here. All is complete for the Cooking Demonstrations for the fall. As for the menu, it is sure to please. It is geared specifically for the holidays. A menu that is diverse yet easy to follow. The weekend will be filled with exploration, observing, eating fine food, and just perhaps learning a new trick or two for the kitchen. Be sure to check under Culinary Tidings for all of the information. The demonstration will be held on the weekend of the 12th and 13th of November.

The chill in the air is ever closer as fall approaches. The pumpkins are now shining through the green leaves that are starting to fade. The soybean crops are beginning their journey through the endless changing colors. The corn is all but harvested for the winter and Lancaster county is gearing it's self for the cooler months. What a great time of year to explore, discover, shop and dine in Lancaster County. The old time country fairs are now starting to set up. New Holland has a great one with a wonderful parade. Wineries are now hosting several events in the area. Great family activities are all around with corn mazes, haunted town tours, pumpkin picking and hayrides at area farms, and just a lot of plain fun.

As we turn the corner into the holidays, We have all kinds of treats available for you. Thanksgiving will be grand all in its self. Wonderful breakfasts with all kinds of holiday treats greet you each morning. A coupon/discount card for the outlets and tickets for the American Music Theater's Christmas program are part of this offering. This all-inclusive package also includes a dinner gift card for forty dollars for Lily's on Main in downtown Ephrata and a *horse drawn carriage ride through the countryside. Check under the specials page to see the cost on this unique offer.

And then the month of December... What a great time to see Lancaster County. With all of it's little towns dressed up for the Holidays. The county is filled with great celebrations, in Lititz, Marrieta, Lancaster, Ephrata and New Holland. Theater productions, downtown carriage rides, great shopping and lots of wonderful food. The Harvest Moon sets up for the holidays with a vintage flare. Antique Christmas decorations are adorned throughout the house to conjure up thoughts of a long ago Christmas. The smell of mulled cider and fresh pine only compliment the ambiance.

The fall is a great time to enjoy all that Lancaster has to offer. Small town celebrations, unique collaborations, stunning views and great food, it is all here to enjoy in Lancaster County. We do hope to see you in the coming months.
